30

Engineer Your Life Dream big. Love what you do.

Can you see yourself doing any of these amazing jobs?

Explore the possibilities

Civil engineer Erin Fletcher develops bridges and barriers that reduce traffic noise in neighboring communities.

Creativity has its rewards

Mechanical engineer Judy Lee has designed everything from children's toys to cool pet products.

Make a world of difference

Environmental engineer Pam McLeod works for a sustainable travel company, making sure resorts are eco-friendly.

Check out www.EngineerYourLife.org a guide to engineering for high school girls

Major funding for Engineer Your Life provided by The National Science Foundation and Northrop Grumman Foundation. Additional funding provided by Stephen D. Bechtel, Jr. and the United Engineering Foundation (ASCE, ASME, AICHE, IEEE, AIME).

© 2008 WGBH Educational Foundation and the National Academy of Sciences for the National Academy of Engineering. Engineer Your Life and logo are trademarks of WGBH. All rights reserved. All third party trademarks are the property of their respective owners. Used with permission.

Engineeryourlife.org is produced by WGBH Boston and the National Academy of Engineering in partnership with the Extraordinary Women Engineers Coalition. The Engineer Your Life material is based on work supported by the National Science Foundation under Grant No. 0550710. Any opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this material are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the National Science Foundation.

Photo credits: Fletcher and Lee by Sharon Smith for WGBH.